MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: ELINT Course

[redacted] told [redacted] that he had not been briefed on the ELINT Course by either [redacted] [redacted]. The latter is presently in the Anderson Clinic having a toe amputated. Bill is of the opinion that to make the ELINT instruction most meaningful to the [redacted], at least the first two or three groups of students should have special intelligence clearances. He thinks most of the students will have these anyway. He believes they should be briefed on the interrelationship between COMINT and ELINT, preferably by [redacted]. This information was given to [redacted]
